

Sacrificial Giving

(Luke 20:45-21:4)

Warning about Teachers (Luke 20:45-47)

The Scribes (Jewish teachers of the law) are arrogant, hypocritical, and condemned.

- The Scribes are arrogant. (20:45-46)
- The Scribes are hypocrites. (20:47a)
- The Scribes will be condemned. (20:47:b)
- Conclusion: Don't listen to the Scribes.

Contrast in Givers (20:1-2)

Giving is a responsibility regardless of your financial status.

- Rich people are often very obvious givers. (20:1)
- Poor people do not always get noticed when they give. (20:2)

Conclusion about Sacrifice (21:3-4)

The measure of true generosity is not the size of the gift, but the size of the sacrifice.

- Rich people give out of their wealth. (21:3)
- Poor people sacrifice out of their need. (21:4)

Jesus does not highlight how much you know or give but how much you sacrifice.

NEXT STEPS FROM TODAY'S MESSAGE

I will take my own spiritual growth seriously and become more of a student of the Word of God.

I will settle the issue of worship and stewardship in my life this week.

I will automate the important this summer and ensure my stewardship.
