

Apologetics - Scripture
(2 Timothy 3:16-17)

Psalm 119 - The Exquisite Value of God's Word

Uniquely Unified:

- 40 Authors: _____
- 1600 Years: _____
- One Story: _____

Richly Witnessed

- Multitudes of Copies: _____
- Close Dates: _____
- Complete Consistency: _____

Universally Applicable

- Over Time: _____
- Across Culture: _____
- Throughout Life: _____

Powerfully Penetrating

- Inspired by God: _____
- Profitable for Believers: _____
- Transforming Lives: _____

The Bible is God's revelation to man faithfully and accurately transmitted to guide us to love Him and others according to His design.

Passages:

- Psalm 119:1-64
- Psalm 119:65-120
- Psalm 119:121-176
- 2 Timothy 3:10-17
- 2 Peter 1:16-21

Next Steps:

- Be - I will thank God for His Word and value it by reading and obeying it.
- Multiply - I will teach someone I know something I learn in Scripture this week.
- Go - I will pray for people who have no written Bible available in their language. I will pray for Bible translators to continue to get Scriptures translated into new languages.

Home Church Questions:

- Read 2 Timothy 3:10-17 and 2 Peter 1:16-21.
- What points, illustrations or quotes from today's message made an impact on you? Why?
- What difference would it make if Scripture were not an accurate report of historical events? Does it matter?
- What ramifications are there in your life when you believe the Word of God is true? Not true?
- Why would God choose to reveal Himself to us in a written form? What does that assume?
- Studies have shown that the number one predictor of spiritual health is regular time in God's Word. Why would that be true? How consistent are you in being in the Bible regularly?
- How can we more effectively link reading God's Word and obeying God's Word?
- What practical steps can we take to be more accountable about spending time in God's Word?