Prayer

A Kingship Psalm

Psalm 2

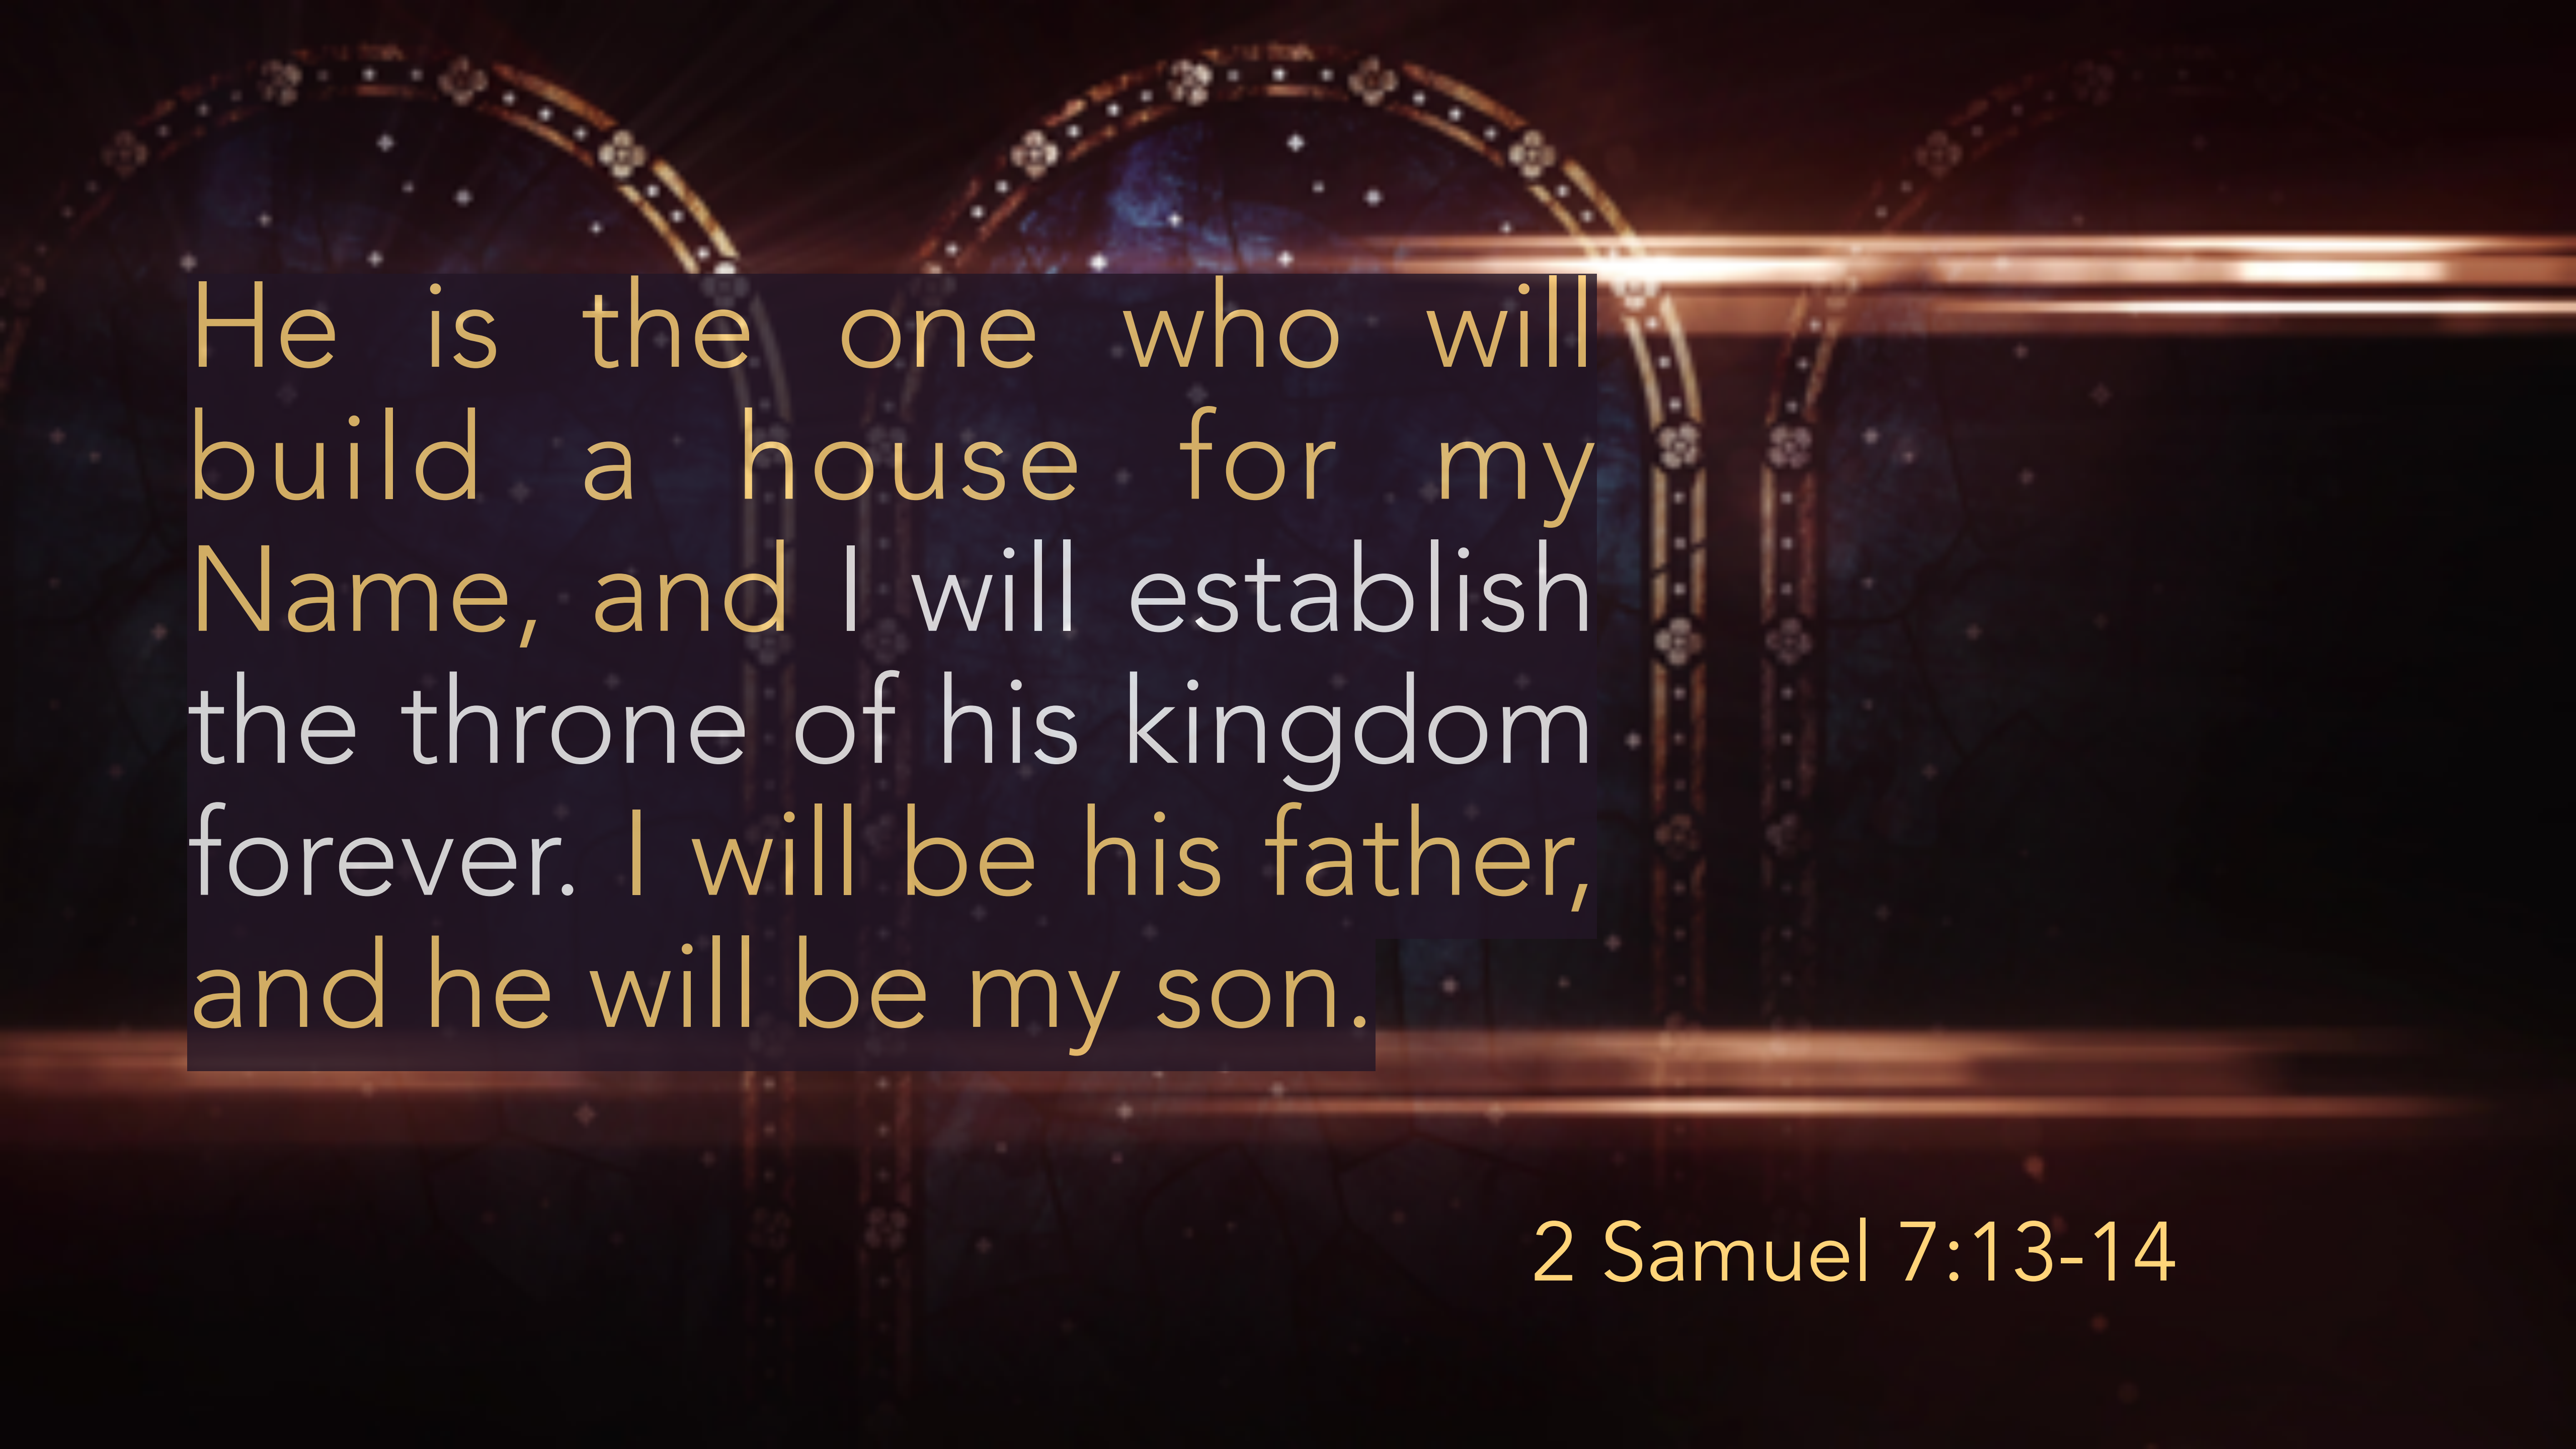

A Divine Plan

Now I will make your name great, like the names of the greatest men on earth. And I will provide a place for my people Israel and will plant them so that they can have a home of their own and no longer be disturbed. Wicked people will not oppress them anymore, as they did at the beginning

2 Samuel 7:9-10

and have done ever since the time
I appointed leaders over my people Israel.
I will also give you rest from all your enemies.
The Lord declares to you that the Lord himself will establish a house for you: When your days are over and you rest with your ancestors, I will raise up your offspring to succeed you, your own flesh and blood, and I will establish his kingdom.

2 Samuel 7:11-12

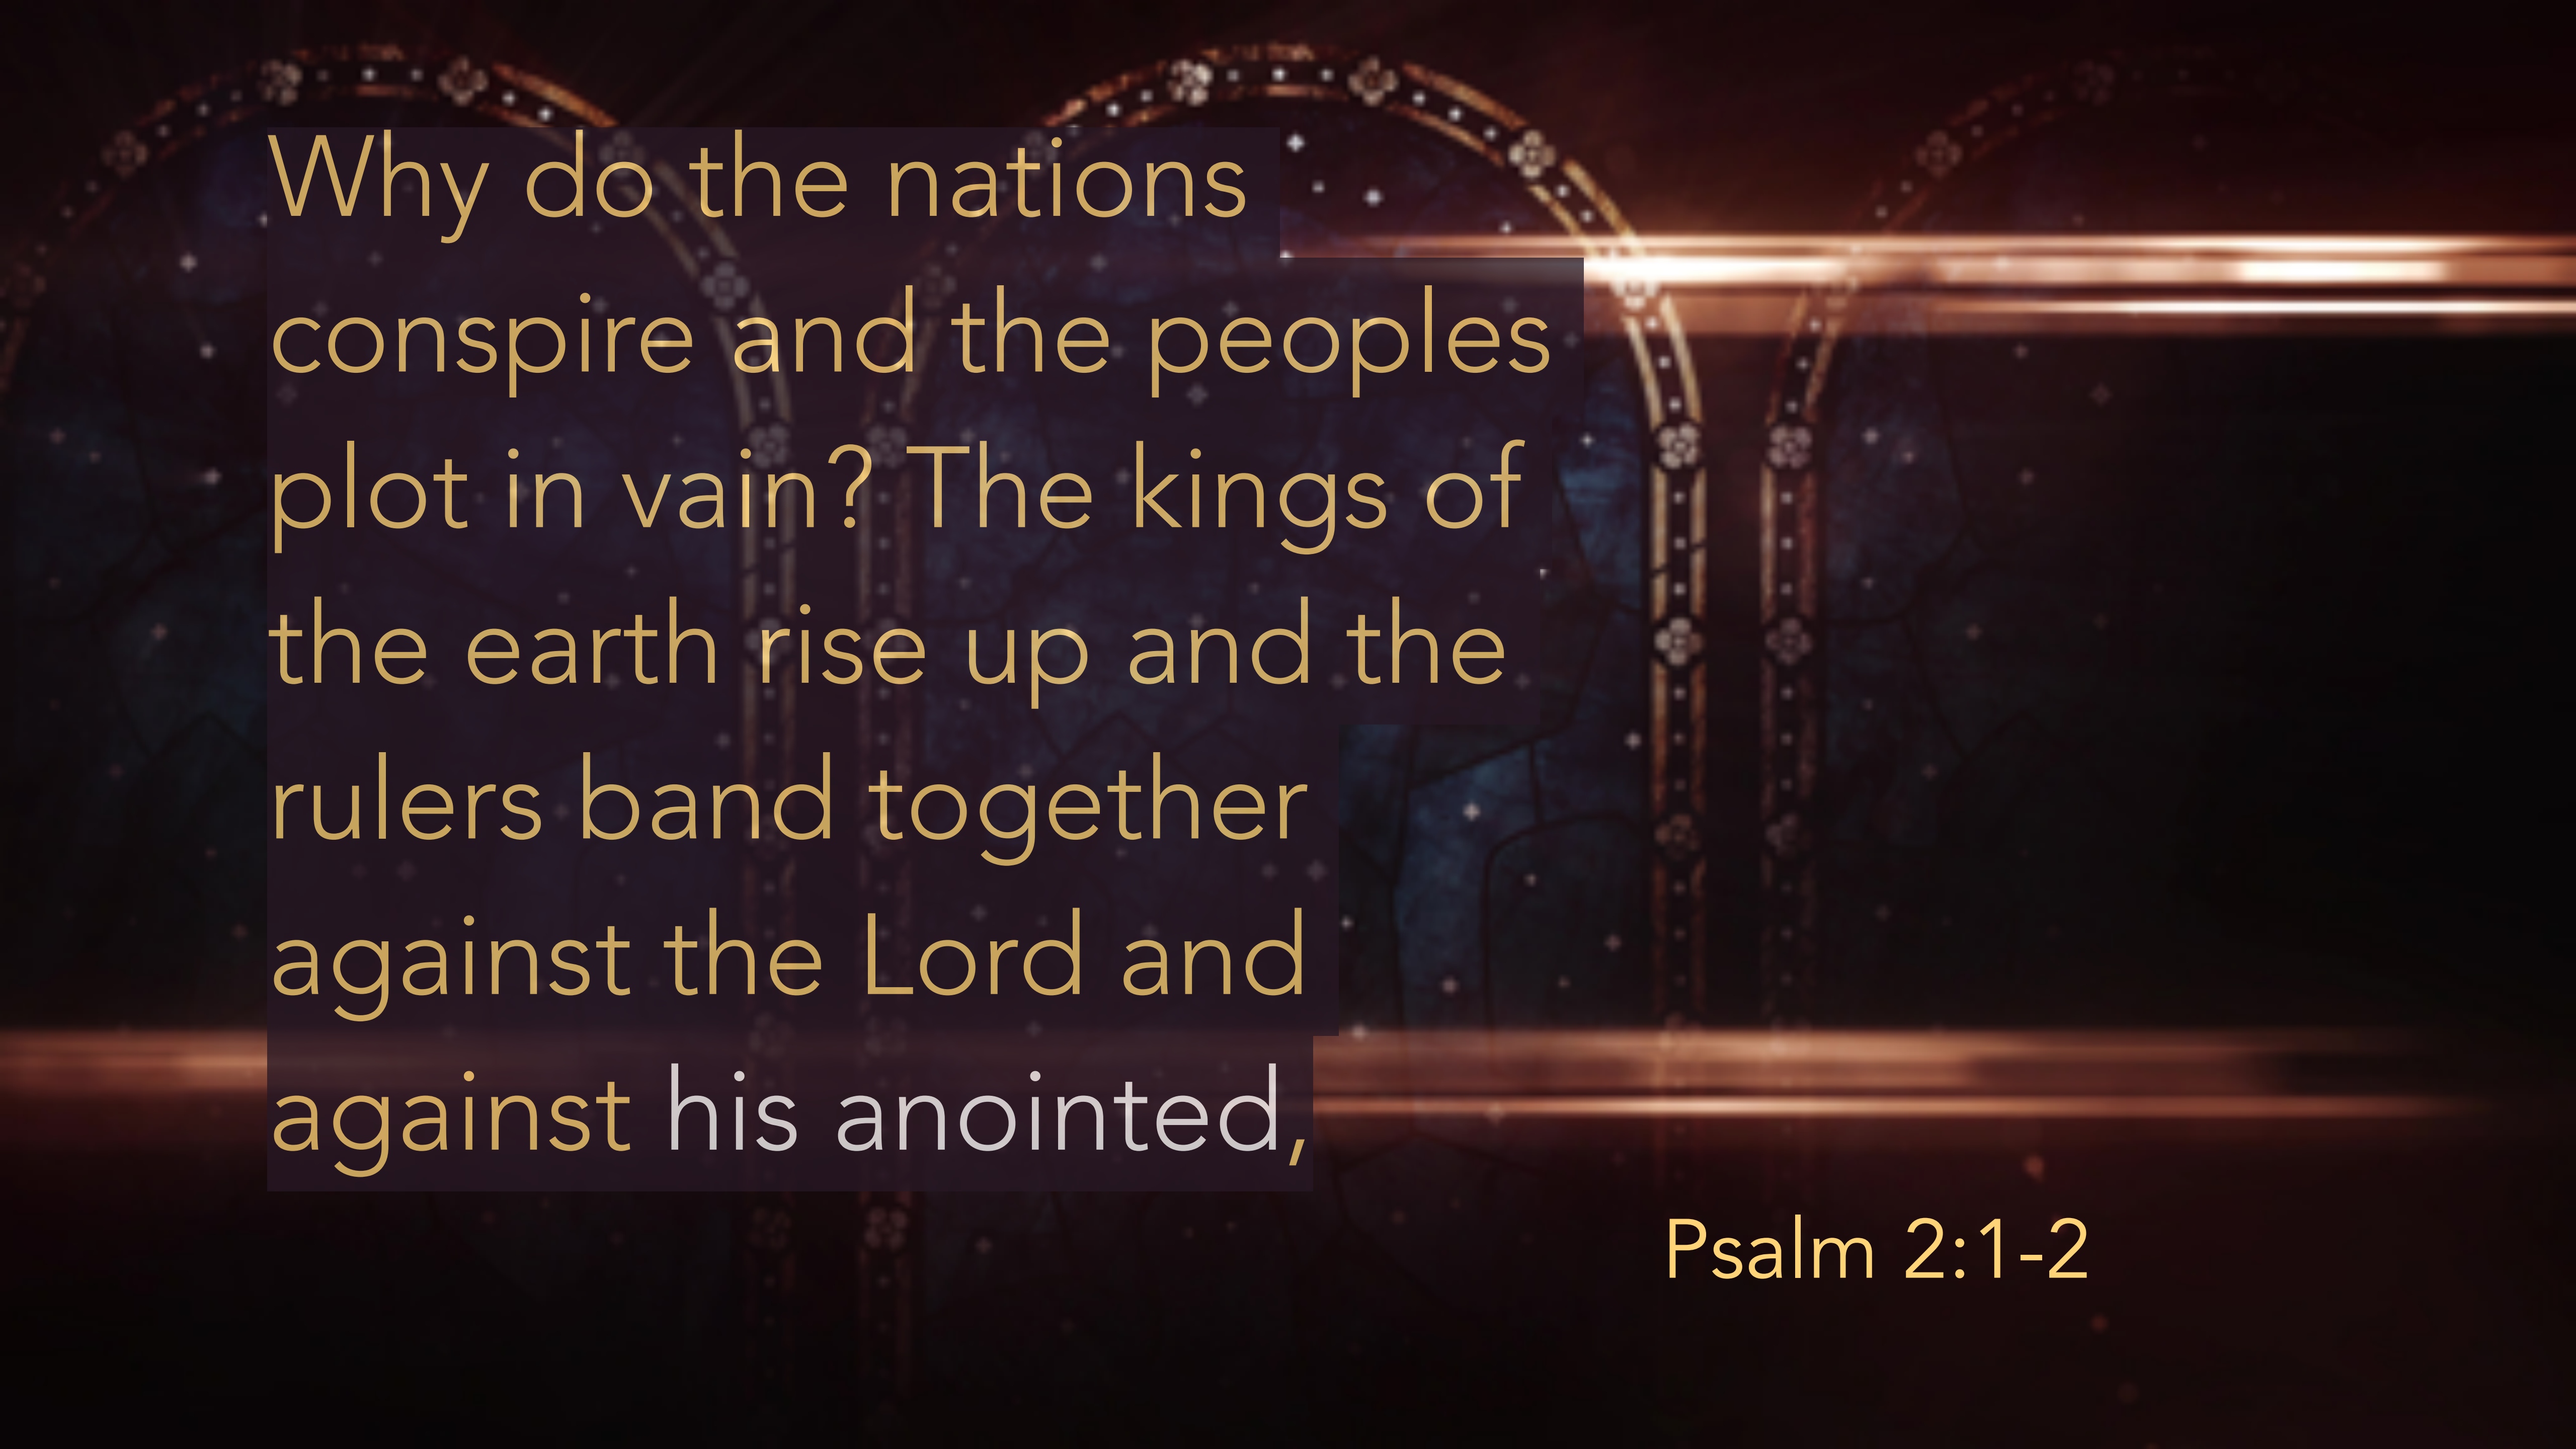

The background features a dark, atmospheric interior with golden, ornate arches. A bright, glowing light source is visible on the right side, casting a warm glow across the scene. The overall aesthetic is rich and dramatic, with a focus on light and shadow.

He is the one who will build a house for my Name, and I will establish
the throne of his kingdom
forever. I will be his father,
and he will be my son.

2 Samuel 7:13-14

An Anointed King

Why do the nations
conspire and the peoples plot in vain? The kings of the earth rise up and the
rulers band together
against the Lord and
against his anointed,

Psalm 2:1-2

saying,

“Let us break their chains
and throw off their shackles.” The One enthroned in heaven laughs; the Lord scoffs at them. He rebukes them in his anger and terrifies them in his wrath,
saying, “I have installed my king
on Zion, my holy mountain.”,

Psalms 2:3-6

I will proclaim the Lord's decree:
He said to me, "You are my son;
today I have become your father.
Ask me, and I will make the nations your inheritance, the ends of the earth your possession. You will break them with a rod of iron; you will dash them to pieces
like pottery."

Psalms 2:7-9

A Kingdom Invitation

Acts 13 (Saviour)

Hebrews 1 (Great High Priest)

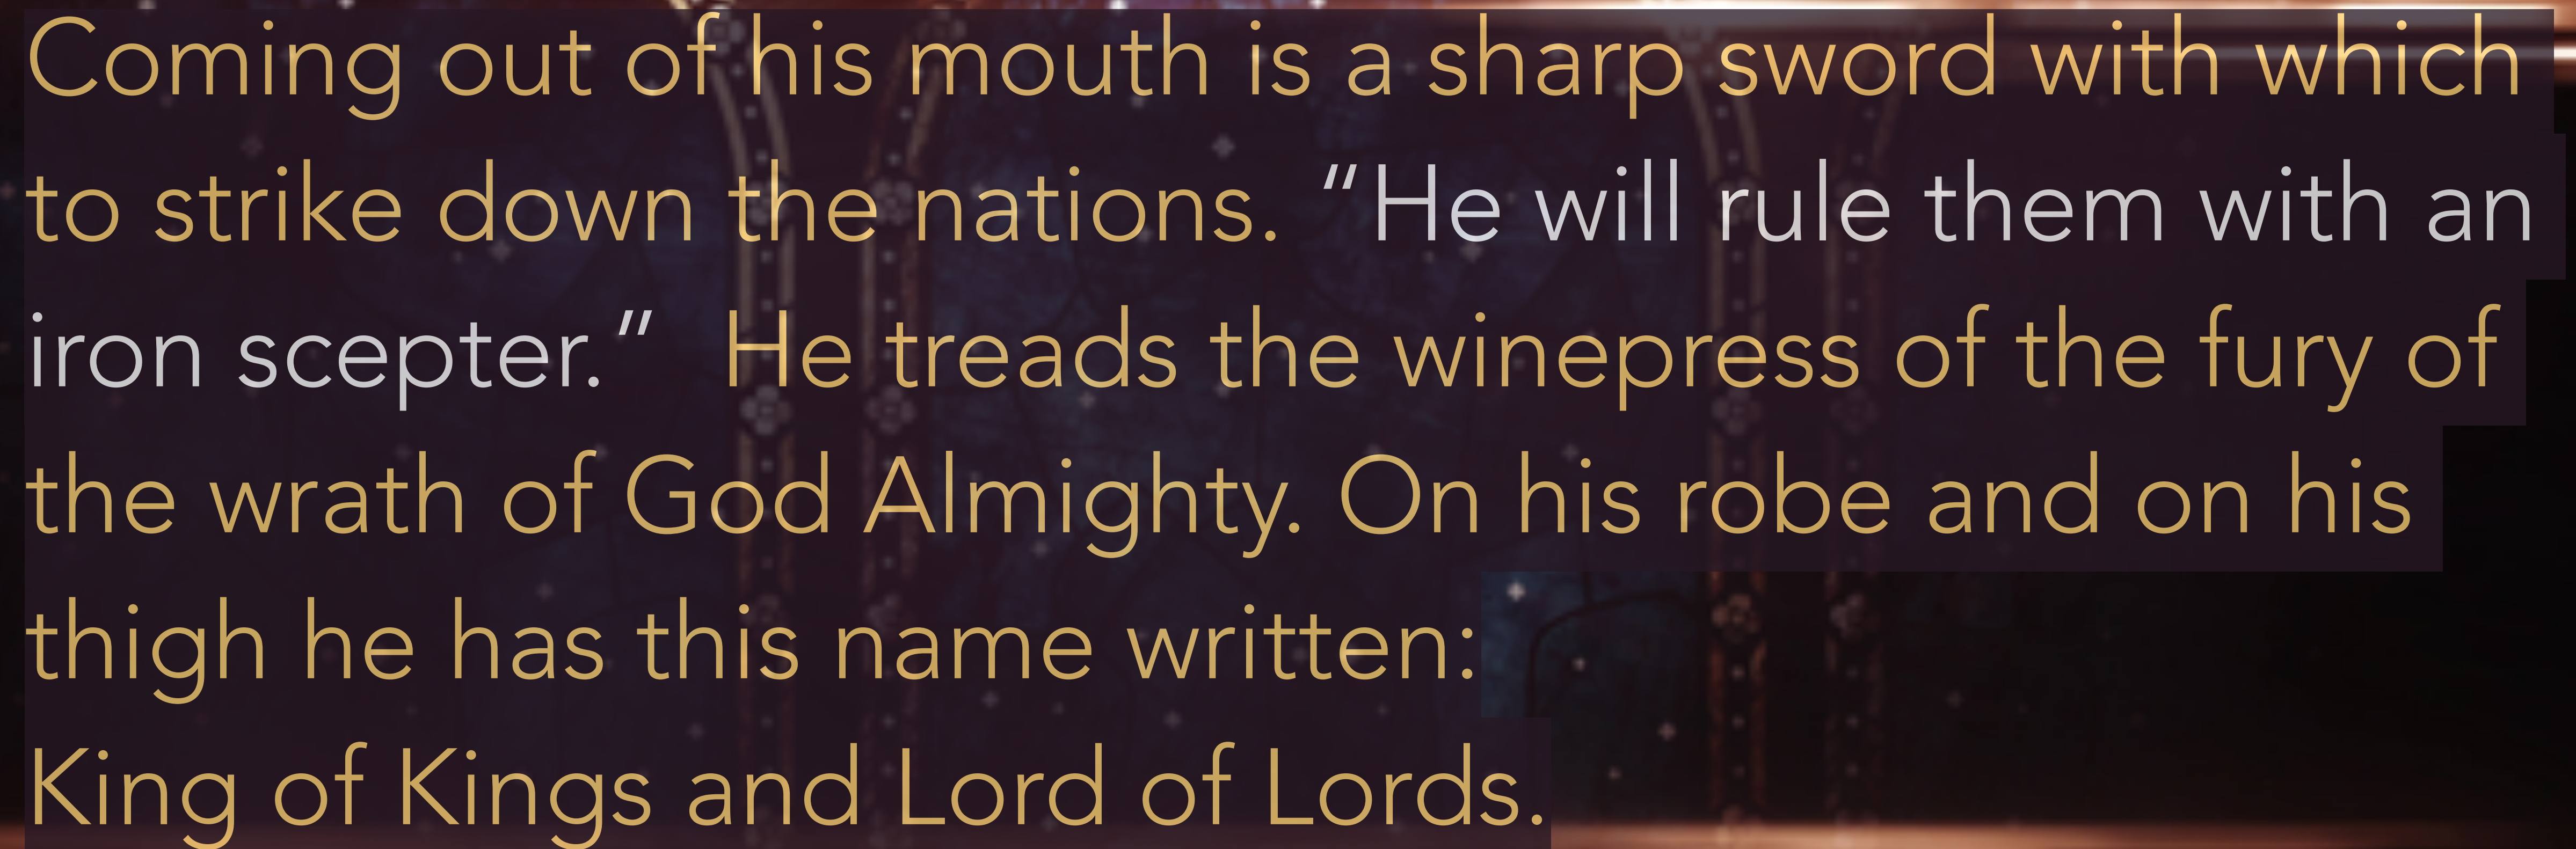

Revelation 19 (King of Kings)

We tell you the good news: What God promised our ancestors he has fulfilled for us, their children, by raising up Jesus. As it is written in the second Psalm: "You are my son; today I have become your father." God raised him from the dead so that he will never be subject to decay. As God has said, I will give you the holy and sure blessings promised to David

Acts 13:32-34

The Son is the radiance of God's glory and the exact representation of his being, sustaining all things by his powerful word. After he had provided purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty in heaven. So he became as much superior to the angels as the name he has inherited is superior to theirs. For to which of the angels did God ever say, "You are my Son; today I have become your Father?"

Hebrews 1:3-5

Coming out of his mouth is a sharp sword with which to strike down the nations. "He will rule them with an iron scepter." He treads the winepress of the fury of the wrath of God Almighty. On his robe and on his thigh he has this name written: King of Kings and Lord of Lords.

Revelation 19:15-16

Therefore, you kings, be wise;
be warned, you rulers of the earth.
Serve the Lord with fear
and celebrate his rule with trembling.
Kiss his son, or he will be angry
and your way will lead to your destruction,
for his wrath can flare up in a moment.
Blessed are all who take refuge in him.

Psalm 2:10-12

Serve the Lord with fear

Celebrate his rule with trembling

Kiss his son

Take refuge in him.
